

Exposure Visit on "Regional Development, High Tech Agriculture and Innovative Irrigation Solutions in Israel" for Executives and High Officials from BIRD, India. March 6 - 15, 2011

The Weitz Center had the pleasure to welcome executives and high officials for the BIRD, in India. From 6 to 15 March 2011, the participants attended field visits on "Regional Development, High Tech Agriculture and Innovative Irrigation Solutions in Israel". Among other visits, the participants had the opportunity to visit the dairy farm of Moshav Nir Banim, and the Lachish Experimental Station in the Lachish region, the NANDANJAIN Company which introduce the participants with irrigation solutions, the Institute for Technology and Storage of Agricultural Products and Post Harvesting located in the Agricultural Research Center (ARO) Volcani Center, as well as floriculture activities in Moshav Shazar.

