

Mainstreaming poverty□environment linkages into planning and development: New dates

The international training "Mainstreaming poverty□environment linkages into planning and development", originally held from February 7 to March 3, 2011, is postponed until further notice. The Weitz Center apologizes for the inconvenience.